Meet Kem Overby

Professional dancer, teacher, examiner, and judge

Kem Overby, a certified Grand Master, began his career in 1975 as an assistant in a college disco class. Over the next four decades, he trained with some of the top Arthur Murray, Fred Astaire, and independent coaches in the world. He began judging students in 1980 and judging teachers in 1981. Specializing in Pro/Am competitions, Kem's teams have won hundreds of Top Student, Top Teacher, and Top Studio Awards. On the Pro/Pro circuit, he was a Rising Star Finalist and an Open Championship finalist. In 2019, Kem also began competing Pro/Am and Pro/Pro on the United Country Western Dance Circuit.

Currently Kem is certified to judge Championship Levels in American Smooth and Rhythm as well as Championship Levels in International Standard and Latin. He is also a registered Examiner for DanceVision. His duties include teacher training and examination to be certified as Professional Dancers. Kem gives full credit for his success to his students!
