

ALL STAR Dance Family Reunion

Meet Mo Abdel-Ghany & Priscilla Collums

Mo Abdel-Ghany and Priscilla Collums at All Star Dance Camp.

Mo Abdel-Ghany is a certified dance instructor with honors (Gold level) International Latin and (Silver level) American Smooth and Rhythm dances by Dance Vision International Dance Association. It is our understanding that he is the oldest pro to hold such high honors. He has taught ballroom dance classes at the University of Alabama as well as on board cruise ships. Mo is a professor emeritus of consumer sciences at the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa. He holds a doctorate degree in family and consumer economics from the University of Missouri, a master degree in economics from Iowa State University, and a Bachelor of Science degree from Cairo University, Egypt. He taught at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro before joining the University of Alabama. Mo is a third-degree black belt in Isshin-Ryu karate (Okinawan style) and a rated chess player.

Priscilla Collums holds DVIDA Rhythm and Smooth Certification. She served as secretary, vice-president and president of Chapter 6037 of USA Dance. She and her partner, Mo, have been teaching at several community centers and on cruise lines for many years. She also taught social dance at The University of Alabama for 8 years. Priscilla holds a Bachelor's Degree in Education with a concentration in English and a minor in Speech and Drama. She also holds a Master's Degree in Secondary Education.

All Star Dance Camp is a family camp. We pride ourselves on offering an environment that is comfortable for everyone, so we have a dress code that we ask everyone to respect. Specifically, no short shorts, no crop tops that show the midriff and please wear appropriate dance pants under your skirts, especially if the skirts are short.

If you have any questions, please e-mail Rubye Del Harden, our Camp Director at rubyedel@gmail.com. She loves to answer camp questions!
