Ron Montez Youth Scholarship

Dance Lines by Elizabeth Edwards

In 2021 the Ron Montez Youth Scholarship was created in memory of Ron due to his passion for teaching young dancers. These funds are managed by Jackson Ballroom Dance Club, which is a 501(c)(3), therefore donations are tax deductible. This year the Scholarships, which cover the cost of tuition at All Star Dance Camp, will be presented to three individuals.

The application and requirements are available online at <https://jacksonballroom.org/rmys/>. Applicants must be between the ages of 14 and 24 as of June 1, 2024. Each applicant will need at least one recommendation from a person who has attended ASDC, a letter of recommendation from their current instructor and be required to compose a letter as to how the scholarship would personally benefit them.

For the past two years various instructors have donated private lessons to be raffled in a drawing on Sunday evening at camp. It is an exciting event to participate in because even if you do not win the lessons, you win by helping send a young person to camp. Both years enough money was raised by our fabulous campers to fund a full scholarship for one camper. Wouldn't it be wonderful if this year enough five dollar tickets were sold to fund two scholarships for 2025?

We want to thank John and Patsy Wilson, owners of Dance Shoes of Tennessee, for generously donating two scholarships for each of the past two years. In supporting them with your shoe purchases, you are supporting the Ron Montez Youth Scholarships.

Many campers have made general contributions as well as memorials and honorariums. For donations over $200.00 a letter for tax purposes will be sent.

When a memorial or honorarium is made, an acknowledgment will be sent to the proper party.

Caren Vitell, Kem Overby, Elizabeth Edwards and the Board Members of Jackson Ballroom Dance Club manage the funds and oversee the selection process each year. Questions or recommendations should be sent to rmys.jbdc@gmail.com.
