Camp Party Themes

Dance Lines by Rubye Del Harden

While deciding our theme for this year's camp we picked All Star Dance Paradise. We then decided it would be fun to build the evening parties around various dance movies since Stairway to Paradise is a song in the movie American in Paris. So, we are using dance movie titles as our names for each party. We are so excited that our pros are headlining the Sunday night party with a dance number to the song Stairway to Paradise choreographed by Jenell Maranto.

- "Shall We Dance!" Camp starts with a fun dance party on Sunday night where we introduce the camp staff and pros and celebrate all who have attended camp five, ten or fifteen years. This is the one night when there is no meal at the party, so be sure to eat before you come. The dress is dance party casual.

- "Take The Lead!" Monday night is your annual dance camp opportunity to dress in costume. So, if you choose, dress as your favorite star from a dance movie. There WILL be a costume contest.

- Tuesday we will all spiff up for an elegant evening. Get dressed in your finest ballroom attire to attend our fancy party called "Puttin' on the Ritz." Wearing lots of rhinestones will be appropriate.

- On Wednesday night dress casually in black and white for our "Happy Feet" party. An exciting feature of this party will be the premier of our very own All Star Line Dance that is being created and taught at camp by Jason Barnes and Missy Lindsey.

- At the grand finale Thursday evening you are all on "Center Stage," as we kick off the evening enjoying the practice and passion that has been put into the student routines; then after dinner we will enjoy the pro Waltz routine and a pro show where our teachers dance for us. We do encourage you to dress up for our final night, but also remember that if you're in a routine class whatever you wear needs to work for performing, too.

Doors open for all the main parties at 6:45 pm, and you can dance most nights until at least 11 pm, often later. There is dinner offered every night except Sunday. And remember: keep an eye out for information about after-parties - coming soon!
