Routine Classes at All Star Dance Camp

Get ready to take your dance skills to the next level with our exciting routine classes! These classes meet four or five times throughout the week and culminate in an optional performance at Thursday night's gala.

Don't let the word "performance" scare you off! You're not required to perform—this is all about learning and having fun. Many dancers start the week unsure about performing but change their minds once they see how much fun it is.

Why join a routine class?

- Repetition makes retention easy: You'll master the material and remember it better than you will with a class that only meets one time.
- You'll leave with a ready-made routine: Perfect for showcasing at your home club or studio.
- Boost your performance skills: Whether or not you perform, you'll gain confidence and polish.
- It's a blast: There's nothing like working on something cool with a group of fellow dancers!

No partner? No problem!

Many of our leaders are happy to dance with multiple partners, and we usually perform each routine twice to ensure everyone gets their moment in the spotlight.

Smooth Routine Classes

BJ Harden Jones & Andrew Davis

This class is for professional dancers only. It gives our teachers the opportunity to work on their own dancing while attending dance camp.

Choosing the Right Routine

We recommend selecting a routine class that's within your comfort zone. For example, if you're new to Cha Cha, avoid the Full Bronze Cha Cha Routine. Routine classes involve learning the sequence, technique, and performance skills—it's best to focus on confidence rather than struggling with new figures. Many dancers "dance down a level" to fully enjoy the experience. In other words, if they are a Full Bronze dancer, while they may take many Full Bronze classes, they might choose to take the Intermediate Bronze routine class.

Want to take more than one routine class? Go for it! Just make sure the class times don't overlap.
