What Creative Costume Will You Choose This Year?

Dance Lines by Rubyé Del Harden

Monday night at All-Star Dance Camp features one of our favorite traditions - our always-anticipated costume contest - and many of you are already asking what the theme will be for this summer.

For costumes, we're letting our overall camp theme, Music in Motion, lead the way as we roll into Monday night with a celebration we're calling "Move to the Music."

This is where your imagination gets to take center stage. Your costume can be inspired by your favorite musician, iconic duo, legendary band, or even a particular song or musical style that moves you. You might choose to embody a genre, an era, or simply an abstract interpretation of music and movement. There are no limits - as long as your costume is truly NOTE-worthy!

Think rhythm. Think motion. Think about how music makes you feel when you dance. Let that connection guide your creativity. Whether your look is playful, dramatic, nostalgic, glamorous, or completely unexpected, we want to see how you translate music into motion.

And of course, as always, remember that costumes are completely optional. If dressing up isn't your thing, no worries at all - come as you are and enjoy the fun, the music, and the energy of the evening.

However you choose to participate, Monday night promises to be a joyful, expressive celebration of the music that moves us - on and off the dance floor.

And when the main party wraps up, the night doesn't have to end! Benjamin Pryor will be hosting a late-night after-party titled "Don't Stop the Music!" That's right — you don't have to stop dancing at 10:00 p.m. Keep moving and grooving with Benjamin to music that keeps you inspired well into the night.

And speaking of music that moves you...

We want to know what songs make you want to get out on the dance floor. One of the things that makes All-Star Dance Camp so special is that our music reflects the energy, taste, and personality of our campers — and this year, we're inviting you to help shape it.

With 12 dance parties planned throughout the week, we're building playlists designed to keep the floor full, the momentum high, and the joy flowing. That means we need lots of great dance music — and who better to help us choose than the campers themselves?

Use this link to submit your favorite songs to dance to. Drop in the tunes you love — whether they're classics, current favorites, hidden gems, or songs that simply make you feel connected to the music and the movement. Our playlist creators will review your submissions and consider them for one (or more!) of our dance parties.

So think about the music that inspires you, energizes you, and makes you want to move — and be sure to share it with us. This is another way your voice, your style, and your connection to music become part of the All-Star Dance Camp experience.
