Seating for Evening Parties at Camp

Sunday Night Welcome Party

If you are attending camp for your very first year, you will have a reserved seat for the Sunday night welcome party. There is open seating for all other campers.

Newcomers, Sunday night you will find a seating chart in the lobby that lets you know to which table you have been assigned. There will be two camp ambassadors at your table to answer any questions you have about camp.

If you are a newcomer who is attending with a group and you do not wish to sit at a newcomer's table, be sure to let Jill know by calling her or texting her at 662-213-0504.

Dinner Seating Monday through Thursday

At our camp dinners, Monday through Thursday, there will be assigned seating, similar to what you would experience on a cruise ship. Each camper will be assigned to a table with a specific group of campers.

The group you are seated with will be at a different table in the ballroom each evening in order to give every group premier seating on at least one of the evenings.

There will be seating charts posted in the lobby Monday through Thursday evenings so your group can easily see where your table is located each evening.

To Establish A Group

If you have a group of six or more people you'd like to sit with, you can ask to be seated together and choose a name for your group. Since tables seat ten, we encourage filling all ten spots if you can.

To establish your group, email the names of your group members along with the name of your group to Jill at jaustin.allstardancecamp@gmail.com by May 8th. Please don't text or call with this information, an email works much better.

If your group has fewer than ten people, Jill will assign others to your table to ensure it's full.

If you are establishing a new group, you might be interested in some of the names other groups have. Here is a sample: Bama Fever, Nooga Smooth, Oldies but Goodies, etc. Or, if you are coming with a studio group or dance club, you may want your table name to simply be the name of the studio or club.

If you're attending camp with a friend or meeting someone there and want to sit together but you have fewer than six, and it may not be obvious to Jill that you would like to sit together, send her an email requesting to be seated at the same table with your friend or friends.

You'll have the flexibility to move around after dinner. You can visit other tables or move to one of the extra tables we will have specifically for that purpose.

The Purpose Of Assigned Dinner Seating

Assigned seating for dinner, Monday through Thursday, ensures that everyone will have a specific seat and no one will have to search for a place to sit.

If you don't request to be seated with a specific group, Jill will place you at a table. Don't worry if you don't already know the people you are seated with.

Remember, there are no strangers at camp. . . only dance friends we haven't met yet.

If you have any questions, contact Jill at 662-213-0504.
