The Official All Star Dance Camp Line Dance

Last year, Missy Lindsay and Jason Barnes choreographed and taught The Official All Star Dance Camp Line Dance set to the music "Paint the Town Red" by Doja Cat.

This year, at our Wednesday night party, Jason and Missy will lead us in this dance. We hope you will refresh your memory or, if you are new to camp, learn the steps, so you can join in when they call us on to the dance floor to do our official ASDC line dance. The step sheet can be reviewed here and a video of the performance from camp is available below. You definitely don't need to know it perfectly to jump in and give it a try. At camp it's all about just having fun!

Line Dance into Camp with Missy Lindsay

Before camp officially starts, Missy Lindsay is teaching the Let's Get This Party Started line dance. This class is at 2:30pm on Sunday, June the 8th in the Stardust Classroom and is free for all campers.

Line Dance After Party

Janet Kruse, new owner of Dance Shoes of Tennessee and the queen of line dance in Chicago, will teach two of her favorite line dances at the Rhythm Nation After Party Monday at 10pm.

You don't want to miss this high-energy dance opportunity!

Where Exactly is Dance Camp?

Once each summer, dancers from more than 25 states gather at the Pearl River Resorts in East-Central Mississippi for All Star Dance Camp—the most fun and exciting dance camp in the nation. But this isn't just any camp—it's a week-long dance party where the fun never stops!

So... Where Is Dance Camp, Really?

The Pearl River Resort is located in Choctaw, Mississippi. Never heard of it? You're not alone. Choctaw is the headquarters of the Choctaw Indian Agency and sits about 80 miles northeast of Jackson, the capital of Mississippi. If you're flying in, your destination is the Jackson—Medgar Wiley Evers International Airport.

Choctaw is adjacent to Philadelphia, Mississippi. Yes—it may feel like it's in the middle of nowhere, and to be fair, that's not far off. But the magic of Dance Camp? Once you arrive and check into one of the resort's hotels, you won't need to step foot outside again until Friday. Everything happens inside the resort.

Monday Dance Party

Have You Decided on Your Costume?

Monday night we will travel together to “Fantasy Land.” We will step beyond reality. The ballroom will be transformed into a world of magic, mystery, and endless imagination! Whether we arrive as mythical creatures, ethereal spirits, storybook characters, or beings from a dreamlike realm, the possibilities are endless! We will let our imaginations guide us. This is no ordinary dance party—it’s a celebration where we all will become a part of the enchantment. We will dress in our most whimsical, otherworldly, or dream-inspired attire and be ready for a night where fantasy comes to life! A costume contest will be held for those who wish to participate.
